

Wisconsin Association of School Business Officials

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASBO Honors Lawrence Dalton with 2012 School Business Official of the Year Award

Lawrence Dalton, Director of Finance at the School District of Onalaska, will be recognized at the 2012 Joint State Education Convention by the Wisconsin Association of School Business Officials (WASBO). Dalton is the winner of the 2012 WASBO School Business Official of the Year in acknowledgement of his service, time, expertise, and leadership in WASBO.

Dalton was nominated by Superintendent, John Burnett, who had this to say about Dalton, “Larry understands the importance of establishing strategic plans for future success of the district and also has the ability to translate planning into reality.” Dalton also received praise from his colleague, Janet Rosseter from the School District of La Crosse and community member, Colleen Dixon. Dalton was chosen based on his leadership in schools, commitment to professional development, active participation in his profession, and role in his community.

This award carries with it a $500 cash award, sponsored by Hutchinson, Shocker, Erley & Co., to be used for activities or resources that contribute to the professional development of Dalton. Dalton also has the honor of presenting a $1500 scholarship, sponsored by Liberty Mutual, to a 2012 graduating senior from the School District of Onalaska.

The Wisconsin Association of School Business Officials (WASBO) is the professional association for those employed in Wisconsin school districts and other educational institutions who serve on the business side of school operations.

Contact:
Erin Lynett, Administrative Assistant
erin@wasbo.com
(608) 249-8588

###