WASBO Foundation Professional Development Grant

This grant was created by the WASBO Foundation Board of Trustees to identify and encourage interested and qualified WASBO members to seek a leadership role in ASBO International by serving on one of its professional committees. The Board of Trustees understands that much of the value that ASBO International adds to its affiliates emanates from the good work done by its professional committees.

Candidates for this grant shall first meet all prerequisites for committee service as may be determined by ASBO International. Applicants who are accepted for committee membership may then apply to the WASBO Foundation Board of Trustees for a one-time grant of financial assistance, not to exceed $1,000, to offset their expenses by virtue of their participation in ASBO International.

The amount of the grant shall be determined by the Board subject to funds available. Preference will be given to those who are in the initial year of their participation, and those who have not received a previous grant.
