Involvement Opportunities for WASBO Service Affiliate Members

Right of First Refusal Process

Service Affiliate members who provide sponsorships receive a Right of First Refusal opportunity to sponsor again the following year. In an effort to increase efficiency and improve communications between WASBO and Service Affiliate members, Right of First Refusal will be offered immediately following a conference for the following year and will have deadlines on a quarterly basis. Visit www.wasbo.com/sponsor for the Right of First Refusal schedule and priority sponsor exhibitor registration timeline.

Advertise

WASBO.com/newsletter

By advertising in WASBO's bi-monthly Taking Care of Business newsletter, you can reach over 1,600 WASBO members, including individuals in virtually every Wisconsin K-12 school district. Past issues of Taking Care of Business are archived on WASBO's website for lasting exposure.

Write an Article

Service Affiliate members are welcome to submit newsletter articles of an informative or educational nature. Contact Clare May at clare.may@wasbo.com to inquire about potential topics and submissions.

Make a Presentation

WASBO.com/present

WASBO invites Service Affiliates to team up with district professionals and share their experience and expertise as conference presenters. Potential speakers can complete a Call for Presentations form online at WASBO.com/present approximately six months before a conference. Final decisions are made by each conference's planning committee. Learn more about speaking opportunities by contacting Kaitlyn Peters at kaitlyn.peters@wasbo.com

Join a Committee

Service Affiliates are encouraged to take part in committees, sharing their unique insights and collaborating with district professional members. WASBO Committees include:

- Accounting
- Ad Hoc
- Fall Conference
- Midwest Facility Masters
- Safety and Risk Management
- Scholarship
- School Facilities
- School Administrators Alliance
- School Finance Puzzle
- School Personnel Academy
- Service Affiliate
- Spring Conference
- State Education Convention (Joint Convention)
- Transportation
